

Report from John Larwood – Church Warden

The Church of All Saints is a big part of the village, and is also the biggest building in the village. The PCC are happy to encourage the use of the church premises for purposes other than religious services. The PCC would like to offer their thanks to the PC for their help and support over the past year – including contributions towards the new church roof and the resurfacing of the churchyard path.