

Report from Cliff Jordan – Norfolk County Councillor May 2012

Councillor Jordan said it had been another difficult year, with big reductions in the budget, and the Council facing a funding gap of £155m over the next three years. During the year, residents and organisations were invited to take part in Norfolk's Big Conversation. Responses to this initiative were used to enable the Council to reshape its priorities and activities to meet the budgetary challenges.

Never-the-less, the County Council had managed to keep the Council Tax unchanged, and in Councillor Jordan had been instrumental in getting the roads in Shipdham re-surfaced.
