Safer Schools Newsletter

Secondary Edition Monday 20th April

Hi everyone, we hope you are all well and enjoying the warmer weather. Currently, we find ourselves in a bit of a different situation, with some of you not at school. In order for us to stay in contact and share important information with you, we are going to send you a monthly newsletter. We hope you enjoy it.

Norfolk Constabulary Safer Schools Team

During these uncertain circumstances, it is important for young to look after their mental health. There is now one single place to access mental health advice and support for anyone under the age of 25 in Norfolk. There is no need for a referral, you can just get in touch straight away for advice and support. They can also refer you on should you need more specialist help. TRENDING NOW...

Since 2017, the Norfolk PCC have been giving young people a say on policing and crime in their county. The Youth Commission was set up by the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk, Lorne Green. The PCC oversees Norfolk Police and makes sure that the police are delivering the best possible service they can to all Norfolk residents, including young people. The Norfolk PCC Youth Commission reaches out to young people across the county, allowing them to voice their views on policing in their communities.

If you would like have your say on policing in Norfolk or would like to ask any questions then please visit our Facebook page here: <https://m.facebook.com/NorfolkPCCYouthCommission/>

We are particularly keen to have answer questions you may have on how internet safety and would be interested to know what information you put online.
