

Head Teacher Paul Madsen explained the staff changes that have happened and will happen during this year. Pupil numbers are within capacity at 175 (15 up on the previous year). The OFSTED report was disappointing and steps are being taken to rectify the various weaknesses highlighted. The financial position has improved considerably due to the various changes introduced both by the school and by government. New housing going up in the village is not taken into account when NCC budgets are set, and there is no consultation with the school.
